

Frederick Earl Smith II

April 7, 1970 - September 26, 2013

Frederick Earl Smith II, affectionately known as "Two", was born on April 7, 1970 to Frederick and Gloria Smith in Chicago, Illinois. He was the third of four children.

Two attended Avalon Elementary School and Bowen High School. He expressed an interest in and pursued the culinary arts, obtaining several certificates in this field. He also worked in the medical transportation industry until suffering a knee injury that prevented him from driving professionally. Two later became a self-employed "jack of all trades" doing handy work of all sorts. He was a dedicated and conscientious worker.

Two united in marriage with Alicia Mitchell and together they had four children, Shania Mitchell, Rashiya Smith, Ezekiel Smith and Elijah Smith. He also helped raise a step-daughter, Alana Mitchell. Prior to his marriage, Two fathered three children, Brittany Smith, Terrell Smith and Arielle Smith.

On Thursday, September 26, 2013, Frederick Earl Smith II departed this life. He was preceded in death by his wife, Alicia Smith.

Frederick leaves to cherish his loving memories, his children, Brittany Smith, Terrell Smith, Arielle Smith, Shania Mitchell, Rashiya Smith, Ezekiel Smith and Elijah Smith; his step-daughter, Alana Mitchell; his parents, Frederick and Gloria Smith; one brother, Philip (Lisa) Brewer; two sisters, Vonzelle Brewer and Danyelle Smith; three grandchildren, Iryss Collins, Madden McWilliams and Nevaeh Smith; a grandmother, Frances Robinson; and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
