

Gale Marie Harris-Boyd

August 16, 1957 - July 12, 2013

Gale Marie Harris-Boyd was born August 16, 1957 to George Hawthorne and Mildred Harris. She was the seventh child of eight siblings.

Gale graduated from Calumet High School and went on to attend Truman College.

Gale was a person full of life. She loved to travel and she always enjoyed a good book. She was a good wife and an excellent mother to her two beautiful children and her stepson. She was outgoing, and a workaholic who spent more than 22 years working for Chicago Discount Cleaners, her second home.

On July 12, 2013, during the early morning hours, God sent his angels to escort Gale to that mansion that he prepared for her to spend her eternal life in his kingdom. She was preceded in death by her parents, Mildred and George, sisters, Diane Harris and Jacqueline Dixon.

Gale leaves to cherish her memories, her husband, Ronnie Boyd; son, Brian Harris; daughter, Tiffany Akinmuko; her stepson, Ronnie Boyd Jr.; siblings, Victoria Thomas, Linda Barnes (husband, David Belt), Leonard Dixon (wife, Erma), Ronald Dixon and Sharon McClendon; a grandson on the way; a lifetime friend and sister, Tina Montgomery; Larry Thomas and Santos

Akinmuko; and a host of nieces, nephews, in-laws, other relatives and friends.

“ *John 11:35 Jesus gave way to tears.
A few words great meaning for us.
Yours truly,*

“ When we lose our loved one's we need comfort and support. Many have found comfort in God's word the Bible, which he promises a resurrection for those we love at John 5:28,29. This is a promise that is sure to be fulfilled.
