

Gary Ethel Lewis

February 15, 1927 - March 3, 2021

If Pioneering Weren't My Life
If Pioneering weren't my life,
What would I be doing?
No doubt a lot of empty things,
imbued with hopes of useless dreams.
A part of this world's misery
That's for sure where I would be.
If I weren't Pioneering — you see.

They wouldn't have my early smile
to brighten up their day.
Or my encouraging Scriptural thought to help them light their way.

If Pioneering weren't my life,
I might be prone to sigh —
next week, next month, next year.
As the preaching work passes by.

So, let me keep my zeal,
right down to the end.
I pray you'll understand,

and become my ~ Pioneering friend.
