

Gayle Harris

July 27, 1954 - June 8, 2012

Gayle Harris was born on July 27, 1954 to the union of Leola and Samuel Montgomery. Gayle was the fourth of seven children.

As a young woman, Gayle dedicated her life to Jehovah. She symbolized her dedication by water baptism on July 26, 1971. She faithfully attended Christian meetings and regularly shared her faith with others. She had a great love for people, including children.

Gayle graduated from Harper High School in 1972. She was united in marriage to Al Harris on July 13, 1983. To this union one daughter, Sierra Danielle Harris was born.

Gayle was known as a collector of many fine things. One of her favorite hobbies was growing flowers. Some of her other interests included cooking, sewing, knitting and swimming. As one who enjoyed trying new and exciting things, Gayle would prepare recipes for family and friends.

On Friday, June 8, 2012, Gayle fell asleep in death. Her mother, Leola Montgomery, preceded her in death.

Gayle leaves to cherish her memories, her husband, Al Harris; two daughters, Sierra and Keyonnie; parents, Samuel and Margaret Montgomery and Clyde and Fannie Mae Harris; brothers, Samuel, Ronald (Jacqueline), Robert (Claire), Rodney (Renee) and McGregory Harris; sisters, Christine, Anita (Gregory), Sandra Harris and Lavonne Moore (Justin); a special friend, Tina Chenier Allen; and a host of nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, cousins, other relatives and close friends.

Tribute Wall

“ Gayle Harris

October 04, 2023 at 06:11 PM