

Geneva Austin

September 2, 1927 - November 22, 2013

Geneva Austin was born September 2, 1927 in Tchula, Mississippi to Ezell and Lucy Woodson.

Geneva attended school in Tchula, MS.

Geneva united in marriage with Sam Austin on January 16, 1945. In 1948, Geneva and Sam moved the family to Chicago, Illinois. Geneva was a loving and kind wife and mother.

If you knew Geneva, you couldn't help but to love her. She would always help in anyway she could. She enjoyed cooking and having the family over for dinner.

In 1959, Geneva made the most important decision of her life. She dedicated her life to Jehovah and symbolized her dedication through water baptism becoming one of Jehovah's Witnesses. Geneva had a great love for Jehovah and enjoyed attending meetings when she was able. She worked at Illinois Molding for many years.

On November 22, 2013, Geneva fell asleep in death. She was preceded in death by her parents, Ezell and Lucy Woodson; her husband, Sam Austin; four brothers, Tommie Woodson, Ezell Woodson Jr., Horace Woodson and Mose Woodson; four sisters, Callie Brown, Annie Simmons, Lula Smith and Alberta Pinkney; and two grandsons, Tyrone Martin and Mark Austin.

Geneva will be truly missed by all who knew her, but especially by her eight children, John (Diane) Austin, Bertha White, Hazel (Arthur) Martin, Betty Washington, Delores (Sidney) Reed, Linda Martin, Beverly (Lawrence) Williams and Melvin (Saundra) Austin; two brothers, Larry Woodson and Willie Woodson; one sister, Rosie (Issac) Pinkney; 31 grandchildren; 53 great grandchildren; 14 great-great grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
