

Glenwood Black

June 22, 1953 - December 19, 2016

Glenwood Black was born on June, 22, 1953. He was the third child born to Vertran and Mae Wilson.

Glen graduated from Englewood High School in 1971, where he majored in Auto Mechanics which became his passion. Glen furthered his education at Kennedy King College and received an Associates of the Arts degree in Auto Repair.

In addition to repairing cars, Glen took on other occupations as a Taxi Cab Driver and U.S. Postal Worker. Glen enjoyed being with friends, fishing, playing the guitar, listening to music, dancing and playing cards. He was a member of "The Click" which is a group that played Bid Whist.

Glen was a member of the First Mount Calvary Missionary Baptist Church. He accepted Christ at an early age and was baptized by the late Rev. S.M. Hart, Sr.

Glen departed this life on Monday, December 19, 2016 at 6:20 a.m. at St. Margaret Mercy Hospital in Hammond, Indiana. He was preceded in death by one grandchild, Ava.

Glen leaves to cherish his memories: two daughters, Deotranice Elzy and Lakeisha Spraggins; one son, Curtis Elzy; ten grandchildren; two great-grandchildren; his mother, Mae Wilson; nine brothers and sisters, Wanda (Chester), Curtis, Alvin (Bobbie), Irvin, Wauldine, Carolyn, Craig, Steven and Tricia (Johnny); two aunts, Ratha Cargill and Bertha Glinsey; cousins; nieces; nephews; and a host of other relatives and friends as well as a very special friend, Debborah Matthews.

“ I am very sorry for the loss of your precious, Mr. Black.

When you have a moment, please read our heavenly Father's promise to you at Isaiah 41:10 and Isaiah 25:8. I hope God's words provide a measure of comfort to you during this difficult time.
