

Gloria C. Brown

May 29, 1946 - July 12, 2013

Gloria Celestine Brown was born on May 29, 1946 in Jackson, Mississippi to Frank and Ernestine Young. She was the oldest of five children.

At a very young age, Gloria developed a deep love for Jehovah and people. At the tender age of 14, she dedicated her life to Jehovah God and was baptized in 1960. During her 53 years of faithful service to Jehovah, she exhibited qualities that immediately drew people to her. Her love for Jehovah and for people shined through in her worship as well as in her day-to-day interactions. She served as a full time pioneer for many years and assisted many to love and serve Jehovah. Her generosity and hospitality were unmatched. There was always a meal to share and an open door invitation. Like Lydia of old, "she would just make you come." Her smile would light up a room!

At the age of 14, she met the love of her life, George Brown Sr. and in May of 1963 they were wed. To this union six children were born.

On July 12, 2013, Gloria fell asleep in death surrounded by the people she most loved, her family. She was preceded in death by her parents, Frank and Ernestine Young and two sisters, Gail Lloyd and Patrice Brown.

Gloria will be deeply missed by her family and many friends. She leaves to cherish her memory, her devoted husband of 50 years, George Brown Sr.; her six children, George (Deborah) Brown Jr., Tina (Karl) Reed, Tracie (David) Lonzo, Gregory Brown, Tisha (Shawn) Needham and Tonya (Joe) Valdez; her dear younger sisters, Frankie (Charles) Key and Gwendolyn (Richard) Thompson; seven beautiful and handsome grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews and friends, especially her dear "Buddy" Jenny Ward and "Mama" Dorothy Lawrence.

“ I loved Sister Brown and she was the best conversationalist I ever met in my life. Sister Brown was like my own mother because she raised all her her children to love Jehovah. I will always appreciate her kind, warm and loving qualities. I look forward to talking with Sister Brown in the New World when, "all of those in the memorial tombs will come out". ~John 5:28,29
