

Gwendolyn JoAnn Frazier-Ringo

February 20, 1946 - November 7, 2012

Gwendolyn JoAnn Frazier-Ringo was one of seven children born to Yvonne Webb and Moses Frazier on February 20, 1946 in Chicago, Illinois.

Gwen was a lively and energetic person. Even in her illness she kept a lively spirit. She NEVER complained about her medical condition or physical limitations.

Gwen's early years were spent in New Orleans, Louisiana and Flint, Michigan before returning to Chicago to live. She attended Wendell Phillips High School and later became a Licensed Practical Nurse until a stroke ended her career.

Gwen had a multi year union with Nathan Campbell which produced six children. She later met and married Costello Ringo.

For a period of time, Gwen lived in Fairbanks, Alaska with her son, David and his wife Jenell. While there, she worked as a day care provider, where staff, children and parents grew to love her. She had a strong, hearty laugh, one you would never forget. Her spirit was in her laugh.

For several years, Gwen lived at the St. Agnes Health Care Center. The residents, staff and administrators cared about her and took care of her through the years. She mad many friends there.

On November 7, 2012 Gwen closed her eyes in death. She was preceded in death by her two husbands, Nathan Campbell and Costello Ringo; one daughter, Jeanette II; four brothers, Marvin who died on March 25, 2012, Clifford, David and Robert.

Gwen leaves to cherish her loving memories, five sons, Lewis, David (Jenell), Joseph, Nathaniel and Jeffrey; four daughters, Yolanda, Helen, Jacqueline and Faith; thirty six grandchildren; twenty four great-grandchildren; her only sister, Jeanette I (Lawrence); one brother, Joseph "Nicky"; four sisters-in-law, Arma, Ora-Nadine, Monique and Anitha; one special cousin, Maxine; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends are all wishing Gwen God's grace. May she rest in peace.
