

Gwendolyn Lucas

June 14, 1943 - December 6, 2020

Kind and loving have often been used to describe our dear wonderful Gwendolyn Lucas. She was born on June 14, 1943 to Catherine and Samuel Lucas, in Chicago, Illinois.

Gwendolyn attended and graduated from Wendell Phillips High School and Crane College.

After studying the Bible with Jehovah's Witnesses, Gwendolyn decided to dedicate her life to Jehovah and symbolize that dedication through water baptism on June 29, 1973. She was very committed to her ministry and being with her spiritual family. Her health issues in recent years limited her mobility and sharing the message of Jehovah's kingdom, but never her interest or her love for Jehovah. She was known in the congregation and the community for her willingness to help anyone in need. She remained a faithful servant to Jehovah until her death.

On December 6, 2020, Gwendolyn Lucas fell asleep in death. She was preceded in death by her parents Catherine and Samuel and her brother William Lucas.

Gwendolyn leaves to cherish her memory, her daughter Sharon Mc Dowell; two grandchildren LaShana Robinson and DeCarlo Taylor; three great granddaughters Riana Robinson, Amyrah Taylor, and Zanay Taylor; two sisters Jeanette Lucas and Lorraine Julkes; and a host of relatives and extended family and friends.
