

Gwendolyn Reynolds

June 16, 1966 - June 28, 2014

Gwendolyn Reynolds (childhood nickname, Sugar Pie) was born June 16, 1966 to Thelma and Alfred Gray.

Gwen graduated from Simeon High School in 1984 with a major in Cosmetology.

While in her youth she dedicated her life to Jehovah and symbolized her dedication through water baptism in 1986. In 1993 she attended pioneer school and pioneered until her health prevented her from continuing.

On April 1, 1989 she married Gregg K. Reynolds in Chicago, IL and their union two sons were born, Gregg K. Reynolds, Jr. and Gabriel M. Reynolds.

During her lifetime, Gwen worked in the customer service field, as a beauty and fashion consultant, and as a home décor consultant. She loved to dance, loved to bargain shop, and loved good conversation. She had the warmest smile, the kindest heart, and confidence that radiated from her very being. She was outgoing and gregarious. Everywhere she went she made friends.

Gwen was a very compassionate person that often put the interests of others first. Her family meant so much to her and her love for Jehovah motivated her to be the best wife, mother, daughter, and sister one could ever have.

Gwen's strong faith and trust in Jehovah fortified her confidence in the Bible's promise of a resurrection. She, therefore, often shared the scriptural hope found at Revelation 21: 3, 4 with family and others whom she came in contact with. We look forward to welcoming her back in the resurrection with open arms.

On June 28, 2014 Gwen fell asleep in death at the age of 48. She was predeceased by her father, Alfred Gray; her brothers, Alfred Keith Manning and Gregory Gray; and her sisters, Tammy Newton and Mary Manning.

Gwen is survived by her husband, Gregg K. Reynolds; two sons, Gregg K. Reynolds Jr. and Gabriel M. Reynolds; her mother, Thelma Gray; her siblings, Alfreda Clark, Arthur Morrow (Pat), Elaine Gray-Dixon, Alvin Gray and Andre Gray (Jhatanya); two sisters-in-law, Janie Smith (Turner) and Renee Reynolds; a spiritual daughter, Terri Mack; seven aunts, six uncles, and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

“ I didn't get the opportunity to know our dear sister in the truth, however, I'd like to share a few comforting scriptures from the Bible that helped me when I lost my husband and son, in June of last year. Please read: Eccl 9:5, 6 and 10; Rom 5:15-19 and Rev 21:3,4.

“ *Dearest Reynolds' Family,
We did not get to sign the book at the memorial services, therefore, let our family take this time to offer our most deepest sympathy to you. Gwen will be terribly missed. Remember, Jehovah is near to all those brokenhearted, because he cares for you. (1 Peter 5:7)*

*Deepest Sympathy,
Hawkins Family*

“ I send my deepest sympathy to the entire Gray & Reynolds Family. She will truly be missed. One of my fondest memory of Gwen, was when we were in our early 20's, she was very supportive when we would get out early in the morning to help people learn about God's promises for the future. Always remember the wonderful times that you spent with Gwen. Please find comfort in knowing that one day soon we will be able to welcome Gwen back right here on the earth, under the very best of conditions where there is no more sicknesses of any kind and death will completely be done away with: "He will swallow up death forever." (Isaiah 25:8)
