

Harold L. Daniels

May 18, 1960 - July 14, 2019

Harold L. Daniels was born to Isadore Daniels and Beatrice Cobbs on May 18, 1960, in Chicago, IL. He attended Chicago Public school system and worked as a forklift operator for several years before retiring. He dedicated his time after retiring to doing disaster recovery work and community engagement often going to help families affected by disasters such as Hurricane Katrina and Hurricane Ike.

Harold was the life of the party and enjoyed getting together with family and friends to celebrate any occasion. He loved to cook and would often be appointed the “Grill Master” at family outings. He enjoyed sports and doing long road trips to visit distant family and friends. Harold was a selfless person who was always there to provide a helping hand to others. He opened his homes to many family members providing a safe and warm place to reside during times of need.

Harold accepted Christ and was baptized at a young age. He was called to his heavenly resting place on Sunday, July 14, 2019. Harold was preceded in death by Beatrice Cobb (mother), Isadore Daniels (father), Curtis G. Daniels (brother), Doris Napoleon (sister), and Sidney Daniels (brother).

Harold is survived by his three children, Taquita Lawson, LaPorscha Daniels and Brandon Daniels. His sisters Ora Y. Daniels, Deborah Daniels, Sharon

Daniels, Sandra Daniels and brother Ernest Daniels, grandchildren Andrea, Brian Jr., Jayla, Cameron, Brandon Jr., Amaree, Nevaeha, Mason, and Avalynn. Harold also leaves to mourn the special lady in his life Gail Wiley, as well as several aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces, nephews and host of many friends.
