

Helen M. Knox

January 28, 1931 - August 2, 2019

Helen M. Knox was born on January 28, 1931 to Roosevelt and Janie Williams in Bruce, Mississippi. She was the youngest of three children. She accepted Christ at an early age.

In 1948, Helen married James E. Williams Sr. and to this union two children were born.

She relocated to East Hazel Crest, Illinois from Mississippi and joined Christ Temple No 2 under the leadership of Reverend Marcus Irons. In 1979, she became a faithful member of Beacon Hill Missionary Baptist Church where she remained on the Mother Board until her time of death.

Helen was full of life and always had a smile on her face. She was a great cook and loved to provide for her family. She helped raise four generations in the family and also took care of many neighborhood children. Every year Helen always made sure to call her family members and sing Happy Birthday. Her memory was remarkable! She loved listening to the blues and was known to dance her heart out at any function. She had many sayings, but her favorite one was Whoa-Whoa-Whoa!

In 1971, Helen married Lawrence Knox, the love of her life whom she remained faithful to until his time of death.

On August 2, 2019, Helen made her transition. She was preceded in death by her husband Lawrence Knox, son James E. Williams Jr., her parents, and sister Olivia Lewis.

Helen leaves to cherish her memories, her loving and faithful daughter MaryAnn Williams-Clerk; daughter-in-law Catherine Williams; stepson Dwayne Knox; one sister L.E. Jackson; eight grandchildren Kevin Ellis, Derrick Barnes, Katrina (Tony) Barber, DiShon (Ron) Brignac, Troy (Senaria) Williams, Deonna (Cedric) Thompson, Barbara Williams, and Jamel Williams; twelve great grandchildren and eight great-great grandchildren; one sister-in-law Verlena Giles; three God-grandchildren Helen and Michael Rush and Jolletta Howard; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.
