

Mr. Henry Clay Brunson Jr.

November 21, 1931 - November 1, 2022

Henry Clay Brunson Jr. was born on November 21, 1931 to the union of Henry Clay and Johnsie Brunson, in Hope, Arkansas. Henry became Bruh to his siblings, Henrietta, Verdell, and Nelly Mae. Eventually, Henry became brother to Ruth and James. Sadly, on Tuesday November 1, 2022, Henry fell asleep in death.

When Henry was about 10 years old, his mother died and his Mam-maw helped his father, who was a school teacher, to raise the family. Despite his father's best efforts to convince him to stay in school, at the age of 15, he said he wanted to see the world. He settled in Kalamazoo, Michigan for some years, and eventually went to the armed forces during the Korean War years. He was honorably discharged in 1954.

Eventually, Henry made his way to Chicago, Illinois. He worked as a professional spray painter on big rigs. In 1961, he met the love of his life, Georgia Lee Morris, and together they became a family. Henry did the best for his family. He was concerned for the health and wellbeing of his family, providing a safe and comfortable home for them to live in. He wanted a family home for his family's future.

Being a religious man, Henry would lovingly reflect on some of the good times with the family. Leaving memories of his favorite fishing places, long car rides listening to “Skinny Legs“ on the radio or “Ain’t Nobody Here But Us Chickens” and “Beans and Cornbread“ on eight track, with children begging to keep riding to hear it again.

Preceding Henry in death were his beloved wife Georgia, his sisters, Verdell, Henrietta, Ruth, his brother James, and his granddaughter Brittany.

He is survived by his sister, Nellie Mae. Henry also leaves to mourn him, his children, Marvleen, H. Linda (Brian), Nina (Pattrus), and Loretta (Robert). His 10 grandchildren, Angie (Chuck), Cory (Wanda), Monique, Erica, Quinton, Timothy, Brandon (Jasmine), Justin, Meisha, and Quiana. Also many great grandchildren, and great great grandchildren, as well as many relatives and friends. He will be sincerely missed.

Previous Events

Service

NOV 21. 2:00 PM (CT)

McCullough Funeral & Cremation Services

851 East 75th Street

Chicago, IL 60619

(773) 488-8900

info@mcculloughfuneralservices.com

Tribute Wall

“ Mr. Henry Clay Brunson Jr.

October 04, 2023 at 06:11 PM