

Henry Clay Robinson Jr.

October 8, 1957 - September 21, 2013

Henry Clay Robinson Jr., also known as "Duck", was born on October 8, 1957 in Chicago, Illinois to Mildred (Brooks) Tarkington and Henry Clay Robinson Sr.

Henry attended Dunbar High School. After high school, he enlisted in the United States Army and served his country proudly and honorably.

Henry met and married the love of his life, Darnetta Prater and on September 29, 2009, the two united in holy matrimony, where he became a family man.

Being with and caring for his family was very important to Henry. He was a man that enjoyed activities that centered around his family such as grilling, music and having a good time. He was known in the community as the "paper man" for selling newspapers on the street. Newspapers was only one of Henry's many jobs as he was a hard worker.

Henry was concerned with his spiritual needs and enjoyed having Bible discussions which led to his association with Jehovah's Witnesses.

On September 21, 2013, Henry Robinson fell asleep in death. His family looks forward to welcoming him back to a paradise earth where no resident will say I am sick. He was preceded in death by his mother, Mildred Tarkington; his father, Henry Clay Robinson Sr.; and his step father, Hubert Tarkington.

Henry leaves to cherish his memories, his loving and devoted wife, Darnetta Prater Robinson; one step son, Davon (Patricia) Parson; one sister, Ida Robinson (William) Johnson; one uncle, Richard Brooks; two nieces, Yolanda (Gerrard) Wilkerson and Rakiya Robinson; two nephews, Gerry (Lavaughnia) Robinson and Jaron Robinson; three half sisters, Cynthia Robinson, Lecrecia Robinson Nesvit and Christie Robinson; and a host of cousins, great nieces and nephews and devoted friends.
