

Henry Stepney

May 26, 1928 - February 24, 2014

Henry Stepney, born May 26, 1928 in Natchez, Mississippi, was one of six children born to the union of Pheleon and Annie (Brown) Stepney.

Henry met and married Louise Walker at an early age. To this union three children were born Gladys, Larry and Gloria Dean. Although Henry was raised around a loving, close-knit family, his adventurous spirit and desire to provide a better life for his family led him to Chicago where he raised his family and remained until his sunset.

Henry was a very generous man, keeping family and friends close. Never forgetting his roots, Henry would make frequent trips back home to Natchez visiting his many relatives there. After returning from such trips he always brought back momentums for his closest friends. Having worked 30 years for the Lance Constructing Company he retired but maintained contact with the many people he became friends with there.

Henry leaves to cherish his memory, his 3 children, Gladys Bell-Hawkins, Larry Stepney and Gloria Dean (Chester) Hill; 6 brothers-in-law, 3 sisters-in-law, 38 grandchildren, 52 great-grandchildren, 24 great-great grandchildren and numerous nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
