

Herbert Garnett

June 22, 1929 - January 19, 2012

Herbert Garnett was born on June 22, 1929 in Chicago, Illinois to Wardell and Pearl Garnett. He was the youngest of six children.

He attended and graduated from McKinley/Crane High School in 1946. There he met and fell in love with his high school sweetheart, Juanita D. Hayes. They married in 1949. To that union three beautiful children were born, Eric Keith Garnett, Melody Lynn Garnett and Herbert Wardell Garnett.

Herbert also graduated from Barber College in 1962. He had a love for music. He was an accomplished jazz musician. He played the trumpet worldwide. He was often called in to play the trumpet in places including the Gold Coast in Chicago, Europe and Canada. From high school onward he was called "Little Dizzy".

However, nothing brought him great joy than his service to Jehovah. He dedicated his life to Jehovah and was baptized in the spring of 1995. This was the happiest time of his life. He faithfully served Jehovah for the last 17 years of his life.

Herbert fell asleep in death on January 19, 2012 with the song "Life Without End At Last" playing in his ears. He always said that everyday he lived was a blessing and he looked forward to everlasting life in paradise on earth. He was preceded in death by his wife, Juanita D. Garnett; his parents, Wardell and Pearl; two sisters, Mary Porter and Geraldine Brockman; and two brothers, Alonzo Garnett and Car Wardell Garnett.

Herbert leaves to cherish his memories, his beloved children, Eric K. Garnett, Melody L. (Sidney) Jackson and Herbert W. Garnett; one sisters, Autthata Garnett; five grandchildren, Corey (Natalia) Jackson, Alise Randolph, Aaron (Serena) Jackson, Sean (Carla) Garnett, Harrison (Rebecca) Garnett and Gabrielle Garnett; five great grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews and friends.
