

Horetta Faye Johnson

May 7, 1958 - June 18, 2013

Horetta Faye Johnson was born to Howard and Ruth Mae Johnson on May 7, 1958. She was one of sixteen siblings. She confessed her faith in Christ on February 18, 2013, on the day of her sisters' Homegoing.

Faye, as she was affectionately known, attended school in Ford Heights, Illinois.

Faye was a homemaker and a fashionista. She met the love of her life, Thurman Tee Neal. She was a devoted wife of 35 years, a mother, stepmother and grandmother of her loving family.

On June 18, 2013, Faye made her transition from life to paradise. She was preceded in death by her mother, Ruth Mae Johnson; her brother, Darron Johnson; and her sister, Robbie L. Johnson-Brown.

Faye leaves to cherish her memories, Thurman Tee Neal; her father, Howard Johnson; son, Jeffrey Antoine Johnson; stepdaughter, Ebony Christine; two grandchildren, Jeffrey Allen Johnson and Devin Kenneth Johnson; four step grandchildren, Rory, J'Sean, Jalen and Arianna; seven brothers, Lawrence Johnson (Anne), John Johnson, Michael Johnson (Betty), Cyrus Johnson (Darlene), Eric Johnson (Cynthia), Marvin Scott (Linda) and Marcus Johnson (Vanessa); six sisters, Rosemary Johnson, Betty Carter, Angela Johnson, Joyce Johnson, Louise Cooper (Clifford) and Carolyn Floyd (James); and a host of in-laws, aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

“ To the Johnson family, I am so sorry about the death of Horetta Faye. Realizing the pain and emptiness you are experiencing, no words can help at this time. Please know that those familiar with the family and those who are not, certainly care about you and will pray for you to endure and hope that you will have a brighter future. Almighty God has promised that all pain, sickness and death will be no more. (Revelation 21:4)
