

Hubbert Maeweather

August 18, 1940 - March 22, 2015

Hubbert Maeweather was born August 18, 1940 in Montgomery, Alabama to Alonzo and Annie Lue Folks Maeweather.

Hubbert accepted Christ at an early age and remained steadfast in the faith until his death. He was a faithful Deacon at Southside M.B. Church under the leadership of Rev. Author Pollard in Chicago, IL.

Along with church activities, Hubbert enjoyed going fishing, playing the lottery and dominoes, dressing up wearing his hats and keeping his family happy. He was a kind and loving father.

Hubbert was employed at Hart Schaffnert Marx for 38 years, where he retired in 2006.

On Sunday, March 22, 2015, Hubbert made his transition. He was preceded in death by his parents, Alonzo and Annie Lue; four brothers, Roosevelt, Charles, Levi and James; and three sisters, Alice, Mildred and Daisy.

Hubbert leaves to cherish his memories, a loving wife of 46 years, Ella; two sons, Anthony (Rachel) and Duane (Shree); three grandchildren, David, Jessica and Mea; one sister, Caponia Bonner; four special sisters-in-law, Jessie Sanders, Renee Sanders, Victoria Mayweather and Essie Maeweather;

two special nieces Elnora Tetter and Delores Maeweather; two special nephews, Michael Maeweather and Cordero Baker; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends too numerous to mention.
