

Ian McBurnie

October 8, 1975 - June 19, 2016

Ian Courtney James McBurnie (McCalla) was born on October 8, 1975 to Genevieve McBurnie and Trevor McCalla.

Ian was raised in Park Forest, Illinois. He attended Rich East High School. He was always good in math and later worked at First National Bank of Chicago (Chase Bank) and later the University of Chicago.

Ian dedicated his life to Jehovah and symbolized his dedication through water baptism on January 16, 1993, becoming one of Jehovah's Witnesses.

Ian later married Tian Latouche in March 2004. To this union one daughter, Tatiana Elana Dionne McBurnie was born.

Ian was known for his pleasant smile. Even under difficult times he kept a smile on his face and a positive up beat spirit. Nothing made him smile more than spending time with his daughter Tatiana. Ian had a great love for his family and friends. Ian was the first grandchild on both sides of his family. He was spoiled and dearly loved by his grandparents and great grandmother. He was a joy to be around and will be truly missed by all.

Ian had a great love for cars. His favorite car was his red Impala. Ian was a sharp dresser. He would match from head to toe. He even had a traveling barber, celebrity style.

Ian was preceded in death by his grandfather, Calvin McCalla and his uncle, Carlton McCalla.

Ian leaves to cherish his memories, his loving parents, Genevieve and Lee Robinson; father, Trevor McCalla; daughter, Tatiana; sisters, Leah, Alayah, Salayah and Natasha; grandparents, Ferdinand and Daphne McBurnie and Daisy McCalla; uncle, Kevin; aunts, Dianne (Joel) and Denise (Trevor); special cousin, Tameka Cudjoe; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
