

Irene Edwards

September 23, 1931 - October 16, 2012

Irene Edwards was born on September 23, 1931 to the union of Benjamin and Iona Maney in Hughes, Arkansas.

On March 25, 1954 Irene married Arthur Edwards. To this union five union children were born. She raised her granddaughter, Nina Edwards with the love of a mother. Irene had such a great capacity to love. She was known by all family and friends as the "come to" person for an answer to any question. She was a mother to many. "Sarge" you will be greatly missed.

After a study of God's word the Bible, Irene dedicated her life to Jehovah and symbolized her dedication through water baptism on December 24, 1973, becoming one of Jehovah's Witnesses. She served Jehovah with great zeal along with family and friends for the past 39 years.

On October 16, 2012 Irene fell asleep in death surrounded by her family and wrapped in the loving arms of her son, Larry. She was preceded in death by her parents, Benjamin and Iona; her husband, Arthur; two daughters, Yvonne and Remona; three sisters, Rebecca, Jerlene and Iona; and three brothers, Aubrey Lee, Issac and Benjamin.

Irene leaves to continue her legacy, her children, Larry (Rita), Alvin, Theodis, Robert (Debra); two sisters, Betty and Christine; two brothers-in-law, Nathaniel Edwards and Roosevelt Edwards; grandchildren, Rudolph, Stephen, Marvin, Marcus, DeMarco Edwards, Tiffany, Larry Jr., Nina, Thomas, Jennifer, Timothy, Keith, Dominique, Tracey, Tiffani Conaway and Thomas; and a host great grandchildren, nieces, nephews and friends.

“ Sister Edwards was one of the sweetest person I've ever known. She was truly loved and will be dearly missed. However, thank goodness for Jesus' words st John 5:28,29. I just hope I make it there to see her again. From Sister Sharon Martin
