

Isreala Johnson

May 9, 1966 - February 9, 2017

On May 9, 1966, Sam and Ora Ward, welcomed the birth of their daughter, Isreala Ward.

Isreala received her education in the south suburban area and graduated from Hillcrest High School.

After a study of God's word, Isreala dedicated her life to Jehovah and symbolized her dedication through water baptism in August 1984, becoming one of Jehovah's Witnesses.

In 1996, Isreala united in holy matrimony to Sandle Johnson. To this union two children were born, Sayeh and Sandle Johnson. For those who didn't know Isreala, she was a loving mother, wife, sister, daughter, aunt, cousin and friend to all that knew her and came to know her.

Around 2012, Isreala became ill soon after she had a heart attack. After witnessing the care the doctors in Arkansas provided, Isreala and her children decided to seek medical help in Chicago. With the help of Craig her brother and Sharon her sister, Isreala found help at the University of Chicago Medical Center. After staying with her sister Sharon, her brother Craig came by to see how she was doing, little did he know what he was in for. As soon as he walked into the kitchen he was overwhelmed with a flurry of tickling fingers.

Yes, Isreala and Sharon bombarded Craig with a bunch of tickles until he hit the floor laughing and almost landed on the dog that was there at that time. Even though Isreala was ill she still maintained her sense of humor.

On February 9, 2017, Isreala fell asleep in death at St. James Hospital. She was preceded in death by her parents, Sam and Ora; her husband, Sandle Johnson Sr.; and her siblings, Sam Jr., Ida Mae, Jerry, Jakki, Brenda, Paul and Steven Isreala leaves to cherish her memory, two loving and devoted children, Sandle Jr. and Sayeh; siblings, Henry, Perry, David, Terry, Craig (Maria) and Sharon; and a host of relatives and friends too numerous to mention.
