

Jacqueline Donand

January 22, 1948 - April 29, 2013

Jacqueline "Jaki" Ruth Donand was born on January 22, 1948 to Helen and Stanley Donand in Louisville, Kentucky.

Jaki worked hard and excelled in school graduating from Central High School. She had two daughters, LaTonya Gill and Tahsha Sydnor.

in 1988, Jaki moved to Indianapolis, Indiana where she began to study the Bible with Jehovah's Witnesses, and within the year, she symbolized her dedication through water baptism. She was a faithful servant of Jehovah for over 25 years. In her early years in the truth, she auxiliary pioneered when she could while working full-time. She had the privilege of raising her grandchildren and helped to aid them and her daughter in the truth.

Jaki worked at Children's Bureau of Indianapolis for 13 years. She found joy in helping underprivileged children from infants to teenagers often wanting to bring them home with her; that was her nature. Anyone that knew her knew she was a good listener, and she often shared the hope she had from the scriptures of life free from worry, pain and death.

On April 29, 2013, Jaki fell asleep in death. She was preceded in death by her parents, Helen and Stanley Donand; her grandparents, William and Bessie Ridley; her brother, Richard Lyons; and her uncle and aunt, William H. Ridley Sr. and Ruth Ridley.

Jaki leaves to cherish her memories, two daughters, LaTonya Gill and Tahsha (Timothy) Sydnor; six grandchildren, Tocarra Donand, Andre Gill Jr., Christopher (Latrice) Gill, Nicholas Sydnor, Ethan Sydnor and Brennon Sydnor; one great grandson, Cayden Williams; cousins, William H. (Charlotte) Ridley Jr., Dana (Kevin) Johnson and Kevin (Michelle) Ridley; and a host of "adoptive children and grandchildren" along with a brotherhood of close, dear friends.
