

James Harris

July 18, 1927 - October 5, 2015

James Harris was born on July 18, 1927, in the city of Greenwood, Mississippi in Leflore County, to Jack and Maggie Harris.

James spent his childhood in Greenwood, where he attended school and later graduated. He served in the Army Branch of the United States Military and received an Honorable Discharge from Active Duty in 1953.

James later moved to Chicago, Illinois where he met and married Molleah. From that union two caring daughters were born who were the pride of his life, Labraya and Roselyn. He worked thirty years until his retirement from Hawthorne Works of the Western Electric Company in Cicero.

Dad was the Patriarch of a very large family. Early in life he recognized the importance of family. One of his greatest desires was to ensure that family get to know one another, stay connected and support each other. His value of family also extended to his many good friends and retired colleagues from Western Electric - a loyal bond of brethren that remains strong until this day.

James leaves to cherish his memory, Molleah Harris, Labraya Harris-Jordan (Michael) and Roselyn Harris; his two siblings, Lillian Styles and Jessie Harris-Evans; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

Dad found fulfillment in family, and friends. He found opportunities in his service and work. In each and every circumstance he made a difference.
