

James Alexander Harris

March 14, 1965 - May 29, 2016

James Alexander Harris (“JB”) was born on March 14, 1965 in Chicago, Illinois to his mother, Ollie Conner-Latimere and his father James Harris Sr.

James was baptized and accepted Christ at a young age. He attended Harold Washington College in Chicago, IL where he earned his General Education Certificate. He also obtained a Carpentry Certificate from the Job Corps program in Edinburgh, Indiana. He held various jobs from Construction Assistant to Transportation Driver, but he liked being a transportation driver the most.

James had a very big heart, a big voice, and an even bigger personality; he was a fantastic storyteller. Many of days he held his audience captivated by his escapades.

Heartbreakingly, on Saturday, May 29, 2016 at 2:34 a.m. at Northwestern Memorial Hospital in Chicago, IL, James Alexander Harris succumbed to injuries he sustained due to a hit-and-run accident. He was 51 years young. Preceding him in death is his father, James Harris Sr. and his first and only wife, Joyce Cotton-Harris.

James leaves to cherish his memories, his mother, Ms. Ollie Latimere; aunt, Rosie Harris; cousin, Dorothy Augusta; sisters, Regina Conner and Mellody

Vessel (Howard); brothers, Tom Conner (Marilyn), Vassar Conner, Marquis Mighty (Dionne) and Marvin Harris (Lisa); daughter, Marcia Harris-Williams (Antoine) her mother, Surmora Williams; son, James "Jay" Harris his mother Joyce Cotton; grandchildren, Anisa and LaMarie Williams; nieces, Andrea Conner, Paulette Brooks, DiAndra Rowell and Olivia Sconyers; nephew, Aaron Conner; his longtime companion, Jennifer Clay; and a host of cousins, grandnieces and friends.
