

Janet Marie Ochoa

August 1, 1948 - October 11, 2016

Janet Marie Hill Ochoa was born on August 1, 1948 to Elizabeth Brown-Hill and John Hill in Chicago, Illinois. She was the third of eight children, six sisters and one brother.

Janet was raised on the southside of Chicago and graduated from DuSable High School. From her early childhood, she always wanted to be an entrepreneur from selling cupcakes in the neighborhood to opening her own restaurant, Pancho Villa.

Janet learned to speak a second language, Spanish, to which she was very fluent, becoming bilingual. She also became a real estate agent and broker and resided in Bolingbrook, IL.

Janet met and married Francisco Ochoa. Their family consists of Sean, Romano, Rosanna and Francisco. Her favorite things were traveling, movies, music, dining out and spending time with her family.

In the 70's, Janet studied the Bible with Jehovah's Witnesses. As her love for Jehovah grew and she dedicated her life to him and symbolized her dedication through water baptism in 1979, becoming one of Jehovah's Witnesses. She's zealously preached about God's kingdom in both languages helping many to learn about Jehovah and the New World.

In 2002, Janet suffered a stroke, after which she was hospitalized and bedridden until she fell asleep in death on October 11, 2016. During that time she was helped by her niece, family members and facilities. She was preceded in death by her husband, Francisco Ochoa Sr.; both parents, Elizabeth and John; her oldest sister, Roberta; her only brother, Daniel; her two younger sisters, Diane Laverne and Valerie Renée; and her niece Angela (Angie).

Janet leaves to cherish her memory her children, Sean, Romano, Rosanna and Francisco; her grandchildren, Domonique, Khaliah, Alexis and Tanaaz; three sisters Elizabeth Mayo, Sherry (Prince) Wheeler, Denise (Walter) Hill; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
