

Jeanette Betsy Sims

June 29, 1940 - October 6, 2018

Jeanette Betsy Sims, also known as “Little Sister” or “Aunt Jent”, was born June 29, 1940 in Mounds, Illinois to Johnny Brown and Sena Darby Brown.

She married Freddie Laparrish Edmonds Sr. in 1958 and to their union five children were born. She then married Johnny Calvin Sims Sr. in 1976 to their union two children were born and another daughter was added to the family.

Jeanette was a daughter, sister, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother and dear friend. She lived her life in a direct manner, firm but kind. She worked as a Registered Nurse until she retired.

Jeanette dedicated her life to Jehovah and symbolized it through water baptism on June 30, 1974. She served Jehovah faithfully for 44 years and had the privilege of regular pioneering for 20 years. She will be remembered for her love and faithful service for and to Jehovah God. She had a deep passion for witnessing about Jehovah and Jesus Christ and diligently stayed in field service. Her deepest and greatest concern was for her children to remain faithful servants of Jehovah.

On Saturday, October 6, 2018, at Christ Memorial Hospital in Oak Lawn, Illinois, Jeanette fell asleep in death. She was preceded in death by her parents: Johnny and Sena Brown; husbands: Freddie Laparrish Edmonds Sr.

and Johnny Calvin Sims Sr.; grandson: Malcolm Bernarde Taylor; five brothers: Job Moses, St. John, Jeremiah "Jerry", John Henry and Johnny Charlie; and three sisters: Tency Bailey, Queen Esther and Betty Coates.

“ I am so sorry to hear about the loss of Sister Sims. I knew Sister Sims for many years and she was such a wonderful person. I know that we will all be so happy when the promise in the bible is fulfilled and there will be "no more tears and no more death".
