

Jennifer Trotter

December 13, 1996 - January 2, 2020

Jennifer was born December 13, 1996 in Chicago, Illinois. She was later adopted by Robert and Gwendolyn Bernice Trotter at the age of two.

Jennifer graduated from Thornridge High School. Jennifer was very loving and always happy. She had a smile that would light up a room. Jennifer was very caring and always would ask “Are you ok?” or, “Can I help you with anything?” Jennifer loved to hug and say “I love you!” Her favorite things to do was laugh, dance, sing, watch TV with her dad, help her mom around the house, and act silly with her sister-in-law Nickie. On every Thursday afternoon, Jennifer would wait by the phone so that she could answer it when her grandmother would call from New York and they would study out of the “Listen to God” and “Live Forever” book. She loved every minute of it and loved to talk about paradise.

Sadly, on Thursday, January 2, 2020, Jennifer fell asleep in death at Ingalls Hospital due to complications from seizures.

Jennifer leaves to cherish her memories, her mother Gwendolyn Bernice; her father Robert; her two sisters Gemini and Latoya; her brother Corey (Nickie); her two nieces Aja and Autumn; her nephew Andrew; her grandmother Minnie Epps; her aunt Sheila (Stanley) Wellman; and a host of biological brothers, sisters, nieces nephews, and friends.
