

Jerry Chester Cotton III

June 13, 1974 - April 27, 2012

Jerry Chester Cotton III was born on June 13, 1974, in Chicago, Illinois, to the union of Claudia "Squan Squee" and Jerry Cotton "Bey".

He received his formal education in Chicago graduating from Fenger Academy High School.

In 1990 at the age of 16, Jerry dedicated his life to Jehovah God.

Jerry married Tamika Cotton in December 2000. They were blessed with three children Autumn Cotton, Jerry Cotton IV, and Lathan Cotton. He loved his children he was more than a father he was "Daddy".

Jerry was a warm loving person who was the life of the party. He gave everyone a nick name, he was easy to be around and kind hearted. Jerry was always willing to give a helping hand.

A family man, nothing made him happier than traveling to spend time with his family members. He loved reminiscing about his childhood. He enjoyed cooking and often could be found in the kitchen preparing mom's red beans and rice and grandmother's famous sweet potato pies.

On April 27, 2012, surrounded by his family Jerry Cotton III fell asleep in death.

Jerry leaves to cherish his memory, his loving wife, Tamika; parents, Claudia and Jerry Cotton; devoted siblings, Aretha Cotton (Richard Atkins), Rosalyn Cotton, Walter (Nina) Cotton, Roger Cotton, and Thomas Cotton; grandmother, Viola Cotton; grandfather, Willie Devore; The Henderson sisters; and a host of loving and supportive aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, and a multitude of friends and acquaintances.
