

Jesse Nailor

May 14, 1925 - December 15, 2014

Jesse Nailor was the youngest of four children born to the marriage union of Lamar Nailor and Rosie Brown on May 14, 1925 in Mound Bayou, Mississippi. Jesse suffered the loss of his mother at 2 years old.

Raised in a close bond with his brother and his two sisters, Annie Mae and Mary Kate, he learned the value of working hard for what he wanted, and the importance of commitment. He in turn contributed a strong work ethic and mind set of commitment to his family, his work and his friends.

His most important commitment was made June 13, 1998, when he after ponderance and study of the Bible publicly acknowledged his dedication to the God of the Bible, Jehovah, by water baptism (Psalms 83:18) identifying himself as one of Jehovah's Witnesses (Isaiah 43:10). He was convinced that the only future of life and happiness rest in exercising faith in the hope of the Bible and telling others how it made him feel. This was a display of his pattern of commitment.

He retired from his job at Reynolds Metals Company in McCook, Illinois in 1994, after 44 years of service as a Crane Operator and Painter.

Jesse fell asleep in death on December 15, 2014. He lived through being preceded in death by a wife, Dorothy Nailor; a daughter, Raquel Eunisha

Nailor; two daughters-in-law, Carryn and Sheryl; and his siblings.

Jesse leaves to cherish his memories, one daughter, Jessica, who has been by his side her entire life; two sons, Zedric (Sherrye) and Leggitt (Theresa); grandchildren, Armand, Denard, Cymone, Jes'eca, Lazavier, Michael, Silas, Ashley and Trevell; great grandchildren, Zedric, Carlos, Aubrey and recently born Ayden; extended family, Geraldine; eight nieces and nephews; and a host of other relatives and friends.
