

Mr. Jimmie Blossom Sr.

June 19, 1948 - July 25, 2022

Jimmie Blossom Sr. was born June 19, 1948, in Blytheville, Arkansas to the union of Helen Harris and Rufus Bell. He was one of nine children.

As a young man, Jimmie and his family came to Chicago, Illinois. He worked as a carpenter.

He married Valerie Perkins-Blossom and their union was blessed with one child. Jimmie loved his family and especially his children. He was a loving father to his five children and an excellent example of what a father and man should be.

Jimmie entered a room and he was the life of the party, comical, jokester, and good looking, yes Teddy Pendergrass had entered the room. He was a people person who enjoyed cooking and entertaining. A BBQ master. Jimmie was a great DJ, aka Black Caesar, Jimmie Bell, commanded the stage. He was loving but firm, he didn't take no mess.

On July 25, 2022, Jimmie Blossom Sr. closed his eyes and rested from his labors. He was preceded in death by his parents Helen and Rufus, daughter Ashley, siblings Alberta, Ruthie, Pearline, and Lois.

Jimmie leaves to cherish his memory and continue his legacy, his children

Dellareese, Jimmie (Michelle) Jr., Jeanette, and Jakema; siblings Lee, Ray, Mildred, and Dean; grandchildren Jimmie III, Jimvonta, and Ji'Miya; great grandchildren Jayla, Jordyn, Jacoby, and Ja'voniue; and a host of nieces, nephews, great nieces and nephews, cousins, family, and friends too numerous to mention.
