

Mr. Jodie Morris Christian III

December 17, 1954 - June 30, 2021

Jodie Morris Christian Jr. aka “Five-O and Scrunch” was born on December 17, 1954, in Chicago, Illinois.

Jodie attended Holy Angels and St. Elizabeth Catholic Grammar Schools, where he then graduated. He went on to receive his diploma at Dunbar Vocational Career Academy High School. Jodie worked many years at Commonwealth Edison, where he later retired. After his retirement, he went on to receive his master’s degree, and studied Computer Engineering and Information Technology at Devry University.

Jodie was united in Holy Matrimony. There were two sons born to that union. He later married again, and to this union, were three children, as well as two step sons.

Jodie was a proud father and husband, as well as a smart and very intelligent person. Jodie loved to sew. Over the years he gathered a strong hold for computers. He devoted a lot of time towards his music. He even played keyboard in a few concerts and also made a few songs of his own. “Family Reunion” and “The Way You’re Asking”. He also wrote two books “Richard Blaine” and “Not In The Lifetime.”

On June 30, 2021, Jodie departed this life at Roseland Hospital. He will truly be missed by all his family and friends.

Tribute Wall

“ Mr. Jodie Morris Christian III

October 04, 2023 at 06:11 PM

“ Phyllis Mosley lit a candle in memory of Mr. Jodie Morris Christian III

Phyllis Mosley - July 09, 2021 at 05:30 PM

“ 3 files added to the album Memories Album

McCullough Funeral & Cremation Services - July 08, 2021 at 09:22 PM