

Joe Willie Banks

June 12, 1953 - November 5, 2013

Joe Willie Banks was born on June 12, 1953 in Hughes, Arkansas to the union of Leonard and Josephine Banks. He was the eldest of five children.

Joe was affectionately known as “Too-Tall” and “Papa Joe”. He was an intelligent man who loved working with his hands. He was known for his quick-wit and gift of gab. He enjoyed cooking, playing chess, and spending time with friends. He loved his family and was always willing to help them in their time of need.

Joe will always be remembered for his shy grin and chuckle of a laugh. His warm heart and sense of humor will surely be missed.

Joe was baptized at the House of Prayer in Kankakee, IL under the leadership of Bishop Ella Davis.

Joe resided in Illinois for 49 years until he relocated to Georgia in 2004.

Joe departed this life on November 5, 2013 at 5:22 a.m. He was preceded in death by his father, Leonard Banks Sr. and two brothers, Leonard Banks Jr. and Wilson Banks.

Joe leaves to cherish his memory, his mother, Josephine Gardner; his life-long friend and companion, Jean Dednam; his two sons, Joey Jones and Jomel Hayes; grandchildren; brother, Leandrew Banks; sister, Marsha Banks; nieces, nephews, aunts, cousins, and a host of friends.
