

Joe McAtee Jr.

May 14, 1962 - October 4, 2015

Joe McAtee Jr. was born May 14, 1962 in Chicago, Illinois to the union of Joe Sr. and Marie McAtee.

He attended John Hope Elementary School and graduated from Roberson High School, both in Chicago.

Joe Jr. was a person with a kind giving spirit. He loves sports. Was an entrepreneur, loved making investments, and also enjoyed traveling, eating good food, had a great sense of humor, very jovial spirit. He was so proud of his job, always heard telling people, "I work for the CTA".

From a previous marriage to Ada Williams was born two beautiful daughters, JoAndrea and Alexis, whom he loves very much. They were always seen with him from the time they were small until adulthood.

His greatest joy however was when he symbolized his dedication by means of water baptism to become one of Jehovah's Witnesses on June 29, 1985.

On Sunday, October 4, 2015, Joe Jr. fell asleep in death. He was preceded in death by his father, Joe Sr.; one sister, Mary Lee; and his wife, Ada Williams.

Joe Jr. leaves to cherish his memories, his mother, Marie McAtee; two daughters, JoAndrea and Alexis McAtee; two brothers, William Woodard and Benton McAtee; six sisters, Ruby McCoy, Coree McAtee, Mary Harris, Ann McAtee, Shelly Faye McAtee and Flora Frazier (John); and a host aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
