

John Raymond Jackson Jr.

May 27, 1954 - November 6, 2012

John Raymond Jackson Jr. was born May 27, 1954 in Memphis, Tennessee to Delores and John Jackson Sr.

Raised in Chicago, Illinois, John graduated from Englewood High School and then continued his education at DeVry University. After 30 years of dedicated service, John retired from Inland Steel in East Chicago, Indiana.

In November of 1981, John married the love of his life, Mary. They raised 3 children together. Self-sacrificing and a true family man, John's wife and children meant the world to him. He gave free-heartedly to those he loved.

On February 24, 1990, hand in hand, John and Mary symbolized their dedication and love for Jehovah through water baptism. John, joyfully served as a ministerial servant for many years.

On the evening of November 6, 2012, John fell asleep in death. He was preceded in death by his parents.

John left to cherish his precious memory, his loving wife of 31 years, Mary A. Jackson; two sons, Christopher and Antoine (Darlaina); one daughter, Latasha; two grandchildren, Deja and Antione Jr.; five brothers, Maurice (Carolyn), Melvin, Terry, Anthony, and Dale; three sisters, Betty, Shirley, and Susan; and a host of extended relatives, spiritual brothers and sisters.

“ *To the Jackson family, sincere condolences and heartfelt prayers are extended to you at this time. I am sorry about the passing of Bro. Jackson, but we know our loving Creator Jehovah will soon fulfill his merciful promises of eternal life. As we patiently wait and keep ourselves busy, we will be able to be reunited with our dear love ones who have fallen asleep in death, Jehovah is yearning to do the work of his hands.
