

John Curtis Webster

December 23, 1945 - February 11, 2013

There is an open gate at the end of the road, through which each must go alone and there is a light we cannot see.

Our Father claims his own. Beyond the gate your loved ones find happiness and peace and there is comfort in the thought that a loving God knows best.

John Curtis Webster was born on December 23, 1945 in Jackson, Mississippi. He was the second child born to Charles and Maggie Webster.

John attended School District 169 and Bloom Township High School. After graduation he enlisted in the United States Army. After serving his country, John united in marriage in 1971 with Ann Louise Johnson, his longtime sweetheart.

On February 11, 2013, John closed his eyes in death. He was preceded in death by his parents, Charles and Maggie Webster; his sister, Betty; his brothers, Percy Lee and Stanley Wilfer; his grandparents, Meda and Charteston Webster and John and Lena Coleman; and his wife, Ann Louise Webster.

John leaves to cherish his memories, his sons, Anthony (Ponie) Johnson, Anthony (Ant Man) Gray and Greg McNeal; his sisters, Eva Nell, Glenda (Faye), Diane and Darlene; his brothers, Charles Jr., Kelvin Ray, Sylvester, Jerome, Larry and Darrel Undia; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
