

Johnnie Jackson Sr.

January 19, 1940 - November 21, 2016

Johnnie Jackson, also known as J.J., was born on January 19, 1940 to Albert and Claretha Jackson in Jonestown, Mississippi.

J.J. accepted Christ and was baptized in Lula, MS. He received his education in Coahoma County School System. In 1958, J.J. relocated to Chicago, Illinois.

Between 1960 and 1961, J.J. was employed at Howard Furniture. Through them he was trained to make tailored slip covers for furniture of all sizes and shapes. For a short while he worked for Hotpiont and then in 1974, he started his own plastic slipcover business, "J.J. Plastic Slip Covers", owned and operated for more than 30 years. J.J. was not only well known for his slip cover business but also for his delicious soul food cooking. Turkey and dressing was his specialty and he loved to barbecue.

J.J. loved spending time with family and friends, especially his favorite cousin, Ruthel. They would spend hours whenever they saw each other going back and forth being flipped mouth with each other. They were like two peas in a pod. J.J. was a man with a great heart, warm smile and a friendly greeting like "hey Suga Pooh".

On November 21, 2016, J.J. closed his eyes in death and took his eternal rest. He was preceded in death by his parents, Albert and Claretha; and two sons, Rodney and Johnnie Jackson Jr.

Johnnie Jackson Sr. leaves to cherish his loving memories, his wife of 31 years, Estella Jackson; three daughters, Mary (Greg), Dean-Gloria and Kiesha (George); seven sons, James, Alexander (Vernette), Leroy, Stanley, Micheal, Timothy (Gia) and Reggie; and a host of grandchildren, great grandchildren, aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, other relatives and many friends.
