

Johnnie L. Readus

March 28, 1930 - May 19, 2018

Johnnie L. Readus was born on March 28, 1930. He was the only child of Essie Morris and Luther Readus Sr.

Johnnie started and finished his education successfully in Memphis, Tennessee and proudly graduated from Manessa High School where he received his high school diploma. After high school, he went on to pursue a career in the United States Army where he was honorably discharged. Johnnie also worked for the United States Postal Service and went on from there to work for the Chicago Transit Authority (CTA) where he later retired from.

Later in life, Johnnie was introduced to the truth and went on to dedicate his life to Jehovah. He symbolized his dedication by water baptism on July 6, 1996, becoming one of Jehovah's Witnesses and remained a faithful servant.

Johnnie was known for his good natured attitude and his joyful demeanor. He later met, fell in love and married Kathleen Turner on January 10, 1998. They lovingly and faithfully remained yoked together until his death.

On May 19, 2018, Johnnie fell asleep in Jehovah's memory is where he is guaranteed a resurrection. He was surrounded by his loving family the wonderful caring staff of Symphony of Morgan Park Nursing Facility who took excellent care of Johnnie. He was preceded in death by his parents, Essie and Luther Readus Sr. and his daughter, Edith Porter.

Johnnie leaves to cherish his memory, his loving wife, Kathleen Readus; his three sons, Johnny Readus Jr. (Marilyn), Maurice (Doris) and Derrick (friend Paul); adopted daughter Jasmine Rivers; 13 grandchildren; 27 great grandchildren; and a host of loving family and friends.
