

Joseph Clarke

September 8, 1952 - January 11, 2019

Joseph Clarke was born on September 8, 1952 in West Indies, Jamaica to Joseph and Petra Clarke. He received his formal education in Jamaica.

Joseph moved his family to New York City to make a better life. He worked as a teacher for 15 years.

He married Daphney and they were blessed with one son Andrew. The family moved to Chicago, Illinois where Joseph began a career in advertising that spanned 23 years until he retired.

Joseph was a loving husband, father and friend, he would be there for you when things were rough with encouragement and practical advice.

He was a man of few words but when he spoke people would listen. He was truthful to a fault, a straightforward man with great observation skills, he had a way with people knowing when to be firm and when to cut some slack.

On January 11, 2019, Joseph Clarke closed his eyes and rested from his labors. He was preceded in death by his parents.

Joseph leaves to cherish his memories, his devoted wife Daphney; son Andrew; brother

Delroy Clarke; cousin Iorna Walters; and a host of relatives and friends too numerous to mention.
