

Ms. Joyce Caradine

December 13, 1962 - February 27, 2022

Joyce Caradine was born December 13, 1962, to Henry and Bertha Caradine in Chicago, Illinois. Joyce was the 7th child of eight.

She attended Simeon Vocational for a short time, changed her major, and decided to attend and graduated from Jones Commercial School. She attended and graduated from Northwestern University.

Joyce loved many things in her life, but three things she cherished most of all were her relationship with her God Jehovah, serving in the ministry and her precious son Jason. For those who loved her you know she loved fashion, flowers, event planning and had a special compassion for people. She made herself available to pitch in and help anyone in need. She could also be counted on to call and check up on anyone who needed support and encouragement.

On February 27, 2022, Joyce fell asleep in death. She was preceded in death by her parents, Henry and Bertha, Henry Jr. (her brother) and Doris Ann (her sister).

Joyce leaves to cherish her memory her son Jason, brothers and sisters, Maxine, Essie, David, Kenneth, Jeffery, her one niece Naomi, six nephews, and all of her wonderful friends in the Forrestville and Jackson Park

Congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses.

My Dear Friend Maxine, it warmed my heart to hear your sister so well spoken of as a spiritual woman... I pray that you and yours were comforted by the love that she earned from her extended spiritual family. As always you have my warm love and tender affections.
