

Joyce Carol Randle

August 14, 1947 - December 21, 2017

Joyce Carol Rozell was born on August 14, 1947 to the union of Amanda and Roosevelt Rozell Sr.

Joyce graduated with honors from Saint Junior College of Lexington, Mississippi at the tender age of 16 years old. She eventually settled down in Chicago, Illinois where she married her beloved husband, Moses D. Randle Sr. on June 16, 1972. Although Joyce held several jobs, her husband, whom Joyce referred to as “My Moses”, diligently cared for the needs of the family.

Joyce Randle dedicated her life to Jehovah and symbolized that dedication through water baptism on December 8, 1979. She was a faithful servant of Jehovah for 38 years. Because of the loving support of her husband Moses Sr., in 1991, she was able to serve as a full-time minister. She thoroughly enjoyed preaching and teaching and she was known by many in her territory because of her friendly nature and ability to share her love for Jehovah. Due to her being a diligent student of the Bible, she was able to guide and mentor many to serve her God, Jehovah.

Joyce enjoyed many activities with several friends. Scrabble was one of her favorite board games. She also enjoyed music, dancing and the art of decoration. Shopping was probably her favorite leisure activity. If Joyce wasn't preaching, she was shopping. And, if she was shopping, she was preaching.

She would spend hours 'window shopping' and preaching because she could never stop speaking about Jehovah.

We all miss Joyce Carol Randle and we look forward to seeing her beautiful smile and vivacious personality and paradise. (Acts 24:15, Luke 23:43). She was preceded in death by one sister, Earceen in 2008.

Joyce leaves to cherish her memories, her husband, Moses D. Randle Sr.; four sons, Michael Anthony Randle (Tina), Moses Donald Randle Jr. (Camille), John Isaac Randle and Marlo Bernard Randle (Michelle); one daughter Megan Carol Ophelia Scott (Robert); grandchildren, Michael Jr., Latina, Kavion, Keeshaun, Bryson, Amayah, Amora, Shakim, Pierce and Savannah; siblings, Gloria Jean, Betty, Roosevelt Jr., Phillip, John, Timothy, and David; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
