

Juanita "Nita" Berry

February 21, 1954 - April 22, 2012

Juanita "Nita" Berry was born on February 21, 1954 in Chicago, Illinois to Cirlie and Elizabeth Berry.

Juanita graduated from Jones Commercial High School in 1972. A most conscientious and diligent worker, even before graduating, Nita began working at National Ben Franklin Insurance Company as a Claims Examiner. She was employed there for ten years. Due to her excellent managerial skills, Nita was employed in retail management by a prominent company for ten years. She held positions in Chicago, Ohio and Michigan. She was employed by J.P. Morgan Chase Bank for nine years until July 2010.

June 29, 1973, Juanita symbolized her dedication to Jehovah through water baptism, becoming one of Jehovah's Witnesses. Juanita was zealous, faithful and tireless in her ministry until she fell asleep in death on Sunday, April 22, 2012. Her father, Cirlie Berry, preceded her in death in August 2004.

Modeling qualities from the thirty first chapter of Proverbs, Nita was a fabulous cook and baker. She was also very prudent with monies and a marvelous bargain shopper.

Nita loved to travel. She visited Copenhagen, Denmark, Sweden, Switzerland, London, Alaska, Hawaii, Paris, Mexico and Holland. That is just to name a few of her many exploits.

Nita leaves to cherish her memories, her loving mother, Elizabeth; sisters, Gail Gamble and Nevade (Dennis); brother, Darrell Berry; four nephews, Christopher (Esperanza) Gamble, Jonathan Gamble, Kyle Berry and Darrell Tyler; two nieces, Corrine (Steve) Simon and Jada Berry; one grand niece, India Elizabeth; and a host of loving spiritual brothers and sisters as well as dear family and friends.

Nita was very much loved and will be truly missed by everyone who was privileged to know her.
