

Juanita Lowery-Adams

August 15, 1923 - June 10, 2012

Juanita Lowery-Adams was born on August 15, 1923 to David Van Buren and Alberta Ingram in Greenwood, Mississippi. She was the second of two daughters, her sister was Mary Elizabeth.

Juanita graduated high school in Greenwood, MS. In 1940, she moved to St. Louis, Missouri where she resided briefly before relocating to Chicago, Illinois. It was in Chicago that she attended business college and began her working career as a manager in her cousins law firm, a position she held until she retired.

After a study of God's word the Bible, Juanita dedicated her life to Jehovah. On April 19, 1986, Juanita symbolized her dedication through water baptism. For many years she faithfully served Jehovah as a regular pioneer and through her study of the Bible she endeavored to draw others to him as well.

Juanita loved music. She enjoyed writing and singing her own original works.

On June 10, 2012 Juanita fell asleep in death. She was preceded in death by her parents, two husbands, one sister and one son.

Juanita leaves to cherish her memories, her nephew, James Van Buren (Ora); a host of grand nieces and nephews; C.W. and Carol Love; and her spiritual family.
