

Mr. Julius Addison

January 23, 1954 - August 7, 2021

Julius Addison was born January 23, 1954 in Chicago, Illinois.

He received his formal education in Chicago, where he graduated high school. He went on to further his education and received an Associates Degree from Kennedy King College.

Julius was an artist in everything he did, from painting a canvas to the construction of a new home! He was also an athlete, from running to riding his bike from Evanston to Roseland.

He loved good food, always asking "Can I Max that?" He loved music and being a DJ. He was the life of the party and anyone who knew him, "What up Mark!" He was a loving son, brother, father, uncle and friend.

On August 7, 2021, Julius departed this life. He was loved and will be deeply missed. We will always smile when we think of you.
