Kimberly Michele Townsend was born February 26, 1969 in Chicago, Illinois to Willie and Regina. She was raised on the south side of Chicago. She enjoyed going to her grandmothers house playing with her aunts and cousins. Kim enjoyed her childhood with fond memories of board games, lots of laughter, the Easy Bake Oven experiments being her favorite.

Kim was employed at the University of Chicago for 18 years where she did maintenance work. Kim loved her early morning routines and she especially loved her personal days off.

Kim loved her role as mother to her children. She was very nurturing, often taking care of anyone around her. She was both generous and compassionate.

Kim was a very sweet and genuine person. She loved to laugh, and was a home body, who enjoyed cooking, and shopping online. She had an obsession with Walmart.

After a thorough study of the Bible with Jehovah's Witnesses, Kimberly dedicated her life to Jehovah and symbolized her dedication through water baptism on January 1, 1992. She believed whole heartedly in the promises of the Bible of everlasting life on a paradise earth (2 Peter 3:13). She had many spiritual goals.

On July 5, 2019, Kimberly Michele Townsend fell asleep in death. She was preceded in death by her parents Willie and Regina.
