

Lamonica Ferba

June 10, 1948 - December 9, 2015

Lamonica Ferba was born June 10, 1948 in Chicago, Illinois to Nathaniel Greene and Angeline (Chestnut) Greene, who both preceded her in death. Lamonica was one of five children, Linda Greene who preceded her in death, Nathaniel Greene Jr. who preceded her in death, Paulette Webb (Zachary) and Ronnie Greene (Brenda).

Lamonica leaves to cherish her memories, her husband, John Ferba; two children, Michelle Ferba-Davis (Jackie) and John Ferba Jr. (Rhonda); six grandchildren, Tamika Wadley-Ferba, John Wadley-Ferba who preceded her in death, Sabrina Wadley-Ferba, Jakia Davis, Ricki Ferba and Madison Lamonica Sue Ferba. Lamonica leaves to treasure her loving memories, a host of great grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Lamonica graduated from DuSable High School in 1967. She went on to follow in her mother Angeline's footsteps and became a Community Activist, paired with working for the Chicago Housing Authority as the Building Manager at the Robert Taylor Homes-5041 (1976-1981). Lamonica coordinated activities, events and record keeping for the Twirling Elainer's Baton Company (1975-1983). Lamonica went on to achieve her certificate as Building Vice-President at Judge Green Apartment complex. Motivated by aiding all residents, Lamonica then gained her certification as Building President serving two terms (2013-2015).

Lamonia was known for her generosity and kind heart. She helped anyone that crossed her path and dedicated her life to aiding those who were in need.
