

Mr. LaQuon Brooks

January 3, 1980 - March 4, 2023

LaQuon Brooks, affectionately known as Quon, was born January 3, 1980, to Will Fuller and Sharon Brooks in Chicago, Illinois. He accepted a Christ at an early age and was a devout Christian. He was a long time member of the Living Word Ministries, under the leadership of Dr. Bill Winston.

He attended Jacob A. Riis Elementary and graduated from Richard T. Crane High School. He started working at a young age and often he would juggle a few jobs at a time to keep up with his lavish lifestyle. Like his mother, Sharon, Quon loved to dress up. Everything had to be matching head to toe, with a fresh pair of kicks, and even a fresh lining. Smiling and singing was something he always shared with his mother. The two of them would talk for hours about music, clothes, the latest dance, and great food.

He wasn't a shy person, and he certainly wasn't afraid to speak his mind. You might have gotten a few extra colorful words mixed in with his opinion, but that was just him. He might have threatened to pull up on you randomly in fun, or call you a name you're not used to, just out of love. You never knew if he was going to be long winded like a "real Brooks" or short and sweet, 'cuz he's in a hurry. Regardless of his schedule, he often checked in with his kids-just to be in their business. Being a father was his ultimate honor! He loved each and everyone of his children.

He is preceded in death by his grandmother, Ida Mae Brooks; sons, Lamarion Brooks and Jarvis Fields; daughter, Jenia Fields; aunt, Sharon C. Brooks; great aunts, Ruthie Cobb and Jewel Young; and uncle Robert Brooks.

Quon leaves to cherish his memories, his children, Shirquanna Freeman, Nakylah Jones, Jamon Fields, Kenya Brooks, Jamela Warren, Lamariana Brooks, Lauren Brooks, Gabriella Brooks, and Lelila Brooks; his siblings, Michael Brooks, and Jameka Brooks; as well as a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, aunts, uncles, co-workers, and friends.
