

Larry Adams

March 23, 1926 - March 18, 2015

Larry Curtis Adams was born March 23rd 1926 in Philadelphia, Mississippi to Annie Kate Smith.

He served in the Marine Corp. in June 1944. After the Military he moved to Chicago, Illinois.

While working at Curtis Candy Company, Larry met and married Ethel Marie Ainsley on May 10th 1952.

Larry had a thirst for knowledge and was an avid reader of books. He was also a mentor, teaching Ancient Egyptian History. Larry enjoyed listening to Jazz music. He shared words of wisdom to others! In his later years, he came to learn about the Creator, Jehovah God, by way of a home Bible study.

On March 18th 2015 at The Renaissance at 87th, LARRY fell asleep in death after his battle with Alzheimer's. LARRY was preceded in death by his wife Marie, mother Annie Kate Smith and sister Lucille Priest.

Larry leaves to cherish his memories and continue his legacy, his three children, one son Larry Curtis Adams Jr. and two daughters Laura Jean Ross and Gladys Adams; his three grandchildren, Sasha, Christopher and Whitney; three great grandchildren, Skye, Landen and Rayne; and a host of nieces, nephews and other relatives and friends.
