

Laura Moore

May 2, 1941 - June 30, 2014

Laura Moore, affectionately known to family and friends as "Torchy", was born May 2, 1941 to Dora Blake and Simmilee Clark in Chicago, Illinois. She was one of four children, Trudie Cagnolatti, Edward Blake Sr. and Martha Evans.

Laura was educated in the Chicago Public System, attending Betsy Ross Elementary and Englewood High School. She accepted Christ at an early age and was baptized at Pine Grove Baptist Church. Later in life she joined Sweet Holy Spirit Church until her health declined.

She was united in holy matrimony to Richard C. Moore II, and to this union two sons, Richard and Russell and one daughter, Dora were born.

Laura was employed at United States Post Office for many years and worked for ARA Food Service until time for retirement.

Laura, "Torchy", loved her family and was often babysitting her grandchildren, nieces and nephews. Her family always found humor in her practical jokes and pranks she would play constantly.

On the afternoon of June 30, 2014, God called his star to take her rightful place in heaven. Her mission here on earth was complete and Laura "Torchy's" life with God has just begun. Laura was preceded in death by her husband, Richard C. Moore II; parents, Dora Blake and Simmilee Clark; one sister, Martha Evans; and two brothers-in-law, Kenneth Cagnolatti and Willie Evans.

Laura leaves to cherish her memories, one daughter, Dora Moore; two sons, Richard C. Moore III and Russell Moore; one brother, Edward (Mary) Blake; one sister, Trudie Cagnolatti; two grandchildren, Rosalynd (Matthias) Jordan and Russell Moore Jr.; two great grandchildren, Jalen Jordan and Rheaih Bowen; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, cherished friends (Jackie and LeSchon "Peebles"), other relatives and friends.

“ I didn't have the opportunity to meet Ms. Moore, however, I'd like to share a few comforting scriptures that helped me when I lost my husband and son in June of last year. Please read Eccl 9:5,6 and 10; Rom 5: 15-19 and Rev 21:3,4.

“ To the Moore family, I express sincere condolences to all during this time of grief. Very soon the joy of welcoming back our dear loved ones will be a reality. While on earth, Jesus Christ demonstrated his strength and ability to raise the dead back to life on earth. The Bible helps to ease the pain of the enemy death. (2 Corinthians 1:3,4)

“ *Dear Moore Family,
Please accept my condolences for your loss. May you draw comfort from Almighty God's promise to swallow up death forever. (Isa.25:8)*

*Sincerely,
A.Hawkins*

“ I send my deepest sympathy to the entire Moore Family. Always remember the wonderful times that you spent with her. Please find comfort in what the Bible says about the opportunity of seeing your loved one again under the very best of conditions right here on the earth: 'Do not be amazed at this, for the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out.' (John 5:26, 28, 29)
