

Lavater Walker

September 25, 1915 - April 19, 2020

Lavater Stephenson Walker, 105, of Chicago, Illinois, formally from Lytle, Georgia, passed away Sunday, April 19, 2020. She lived in Shelbyville, Kentucky during her adolescent years and she later married John Henry Walker of Shelbyville, Kentucky. They moved to Chicago, Illinois where she joined Bethlehem Healing Temple of Chicago in 1961 and remained a member until her passing.

Lavater was preceded in death by her parents George B. Stephenson and Ophelia Perkins Stephenson; her husband John Henry Walker; two brothers Hayford Thomas Stephenson and Herschel Brown Stephenson; and two sisters Willa Mae Stephenson and Ruby Stephenson Martin.

She is survived by a daughter Dana Kowalski (Ben); a grandson Craig Askew; two granddaughters Kimberley Askew and Donielle Pitts; nine great grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews, and other relatives.

Tribute Wall

“ Lavater Walker

October 04, 2023 at 06:11 PM

“ Love you alway, Auntie maybe now you can rest in a little peace. ❤️

Lettie Green - September 17, 2020 at 09:55 AM