

Lawrence "Billy" Reginald Adams

October 8, 2012

Lawrence Reginald Adams, affectionately known as Billy, was born in Chicago, Illinois to Phelesia and Clevesa Adams.

Some 34 years ago, Billy met the love of his life, Elvira. As the story goes she was about to leave Chicago for Virginia but she never made it. Because he was a man of few words, he knew he didn't want her to get away. They married and they raised together three sons.

Lawrence dedicated his life to Jehovah in 1984 symbolized his dedication by water baptism. Billy was a deep thinker this was apparent in the way he served Jehovah, always ready with a comment at the meetings that reflected the research he'd done. He remained a faithful servant of Jehovah.

Billy's deep thinking was also evident when he played cards or some other board games. He was often referred to as the domino kid, always looking for the strategies behind the game, because losing was not an option.

On Monday, October 8, 2012, Billy fell asleep in death. He was preceded in death by one son, Laird; and his brothers, Melvin, Stanley and Michael Anthony Adams.

Lawrence leaves to cherish his memory, his loving wife, Elvira; two sons,

Duane and Casey; his parents, Phelesia and Clevesa Adams; his sisters and brothers, Ora (Edgar) Williams, Edward Douglas (Karen) Adams, Erwin (Diane) Adams, Marsha Carter, Carolyn Adams, Kathy Barnette and Michelle Adams; and a host of other family and friends. HE will surely be missed!

“ Heartfelt condolences to the Adams family, very soon Our God Jehovah will remove the pain of the enemy death and allow those who are faithful to him to taste the real life. And to awaken those that have fallen asleep in death to that paradise, we have so long waited for. We just have to be patient and obediently clinging to Jehovah, we will welcome Billy, and many, many more of those rather fleshly or spiritually that are in Jehovah's memories. Elvira, I hope and pray you and your family will find comfort from our God who comforts us in all our tribulation. (2 CORINTHIANS 1:3,4)
